Iowa Gas is the nation's largest gas, oil and auto-related advertising swap meet, show and auction. If you have never attended Iowa Gas or have been unable to attend for some time, please accept our invitation. There is no admission charge for buyers.

When you attend the Annual Iowa Gas Swap Meet and Auctions, expect to find vintage signs, gasoline pumps, neon, gas globes, maps, cans and containers, uniforms, soft drink and tobacco items, and other collectible memorabilia from the past to decorate your garage, office, or home.

Collectors and vendors from around the country, Canada, and Europe make their annual pilgrimage to Des Moines to buy, sell, and trade collectible antique advertising pieces of historic interest.

Route 32 Auctions is hosting the 2019 Iowa Gas Auction

The Route 32 Auctions event will be two days this year, August 1st & 2nd. The Thursday evening auction will feature approximately 150 pieces, and the Friday morning auction will feature approximately 375 premier pieces including signs, globes, gas pumps and oil cans, this auction will have it all.

Route 32 Auctions is accepting quality consignments for the Iowa Gas Auction. This auction will reach capacity so we advise consigning early. Consigning early also gives us time to properly advertise items and complete a full catalog. For additional consignment information please visit the Route 32 Auctions website at www.route32auctions.com, email at: info@route32auctions.com, or call at: (765) 307-7119.
